PART 8 SUBORDINATE CONCLAVES

CHAPTER 1 FORMATION AND CHARTER

§801.010. FORMATION.

The Grand Imperial Council has the sole right to grant or direct a charter to be issued to worthy Knights Companions if qualified. The Grand Imperial Council shall have the power to issue a charter to a Conclave upon such terms and in such manner as it deems proper without any dispensation having been issued. [Source: Section 8(c) of the 1958 General Statutes of the United Grand Imperial Council.]

§801.020. DISPENSATION.

- A. The Grand Sovereign during the recess of the Grand Imperial Council shall have the power and authority to grant a dispensation to open and hold a Conclave of Knights of the Red Cross of Constantine, Holy Sepulchre and St. John upon the petition signed by at least eleven Knights of the Red Cross of Constantine, or eleven Royal Arch Masons, in good standing, or a combination of both, after completion of the following procedure.
- B. The form of petition for a dispensation shall be secured from Grand Recorder. There shall be two forms of petition, one for Knights Companions and the other for Royal Arch Masons. If both Knights Companions and Royal Arch Masons who are not Knights Companions are petitioners, both petitions shall be used. The signed and completed petition shall be accompanied by a $100.00 fee and filed with the Grand Recorder who shall determine if any of the petitioners have been rejected by other Conclaves. The petition shall then be sent to the Chairman of the Committee on Charters and Dispensations for investigation and consideration by the committee's members. After completing their investigation, the Committee on Charters and Dispensations shall send the petition and its recommendation to the Grand Sovereign for his consideration and decision.

- C. The Grand Sovereign shall pass on the qualifications for membership in the Order of each petitioner who is not a Knight Companion before issuing a dispensation.
- D. No dispensation shall be issued for a new Conclave in any county or similar political district where a Conclave is already established or at a place which is within fifty miles of an established Conclave, without the recommendation and approval of each such existing Conclave.

In the dispensation, the Grand Sovereign shall appoint the Sovereign and Viceroy of the new Conclave. The dispensation shall be signed by the Grand Sovereign and attested to by the Grand Recorder.
- F. It shall lie within the prerogative of the Grand Sovereign to confer the Constantinian Orders of Knighthood for the purpose of instituting a new Conclave. - I. When issued, the dispensation shall be duly recorded in the office of the Grand Recorder and be in force until the close of the next Annual Assembly.
- J. The Grand Sovereign shall report on each such issuance at the next Annual Assembly of the Grand Imperial Council, which may then continue or recall such dispensation or may grant the petitioners a charter.

The Grand Recorder shall examine their records and proceedings and report his findings and recommendations to the Committee on Charters and Dispensations prior to the close of the next Annual Assembly. If the Grand Imperial Council does not order the issuance of a charter to the Conclave at that Annual Assembly, it may in the alternative revive the dispensation in which event the Grand Recorder shall return it, together with the Bylaws, books of records and returns to the Conclave which presented them. The Conclave may then proceed to work under the revived dispensation, unless legally revoked, until the first day of the month in which the next Annual Assembly is held.

- B. The form of petition for a charter shall be secured from Grand Recorder. The signed and completed petition shall be accompanied by a $100.00 fee if a dispensation had not previously been issued for the proposed Conclave and shall be filed with the Grand Recorder who shall determine if any of the petitioners have been rejected by other Conclaves. The petition shall then be sent to the Chairman of the Committee on Charters and Dispensations for investigation and consideration by the committee's members. After completing their investigation, the Committee on Charters and Dispensations shall make its recommendation to the Grand Imperial Council at its next Annual Assembly.
- C. No charter shall be granted for a new Conclave in any county or similar political district where a Conclave is already established or at a place which is within fifty miles of an established Conclave, without the recommendation and approval of each such existing Conclave.
- D. The Grand Imperial Council shall then consider the petition and may order the issuance of a charter to the Conclave and assign it a name. The charter shall be issued as of the closing date of the Annual Assembly at which it was granted. Once the charter has been issued, the Conclave shall have all the rights and privileges thereof and be governed by all the provisions of the Constitution of the Grand Imperial Council or these Statutes and Regulations governing Subordinate Conclaves.

- E. A Knight Companion upon becoming a member of a new Conclave shall, as of the date on which the charter for the new Conclave shall issue, shall become a regular member of the new Conclave and a Dual Member of the older, or parent, Conclave.

§803.010. POWERS AND DUTIES.

The powers and duties of a Conclave are those prescribed in its dispensation or charter, by the Constitution of the Grand Imperial Council or these Statutes and Regulations, by the General Regulations of Masonry or by the Ritual. In the exercise of its powers and duties, each Conclave shall in all circumstances bear allegiance to the Grand Imperial Council, under whose authority each Subordinate Conclave holds its charter.

The Conclave shall have executive powers in directing and performing its work, as prescribed by the Grand Imperial Council, under the control of the Sovereign.

§803.040. JUDICIAL.

Subject to a revision by the Grand Imperial Council upon review, the Conclave shall exercise discipline over its own members (except the Sovereign and the Grand Sovereign) and all other Knights Companions within its jurisdiction.

CHAPTER 4 MEMBERSHIP

§804.100. ELIGIBILITY.

In accordance with ancient customs and the traditions of the Constantinian Order of Christian Knighthood, membership is only by invitation from a Subordinate Conclave given to outstanding Master Masons who have shown high qualities of leadership, exemplified high moral and intellectual attributes, and have contributed substantial service to the Craft, or the civic, industrial and religious life of their community, subject to the following. The Constantinian Order of Christian Knighthood may not be conferred by a Subordinate Conclave upon anyone who is not a Royal Arch Mason in good standing. The Constantinian Order of Christian Knighthood may not be conferred upon anyone who does not subscribe to a belief in the Christian religion as revealed in the New Testament. [Source: Section 4(b) of Article I of the 1958 Constitution and Section 6 of the 1958 General Statutes of the United Grand Imperial Council.]

§804.105. JURISDICTION TO ADMIT MEMBERS.

- A. Each Subordinate Conclave shall have the exclusive jurisdiction to receive into membership by installation those Royal Arch Masons who reside in the territory as may have been made exclusive to such Conclave by the Grand Imperial Council and concurrent jurisdiction to receive into membership by installation those Royal Arch Masons who reside in all other areas of the division in which such Conclave is located, except those resident in any portion of the division in which another Conclave has been granted exclusive jurisdiction by the Grand Imperial Council. In addition, St. Simeon Stylites Conclave of Washington, D.C. shall have concurrent jurisdiction to receive into membership by installation those Royal Arch Masons who reside in those portions of the District of Columbia Metropolitan area located in Maryland with the Conclaves of Maryland and in those portions of the District of Columbia Metropolitan area located in Virginia with the Conclaves of Virginia. Muscogee Conclave of Columbus, Georgia shall have concurrent jurisdiction to receive into membership by installation those Royal Arch Masons who reside in Lee and Russell Counties of Alabama with the Conclaves of Alabama.
- B. A Conclave may not act upon a proposal for membership by installation of any Royal Arch Mason residing within the exclusive jurisdiction of another Conclave within the same division, without first obtaining a written waiver of jurisdiction from such Conclave. A Conclave may not act upon a proposal for membership by installation of any Royal Arch Mason residing within that portion of another division in which the Conclave has been granted concurrent jurisdiction by the Grand Imperial Council, without first obtaining a written waiver of jurisdiction from all Conclaves possessing concurrent jurisdiction in such territory. The Conclave requesting a waiver of jurisdiction over a particular Royal Arch Mason shall include in its request full particulars and reasons for such Mason's selection. Among other reasons, waivers of jurisdiction may be used to allow a Royal Arch Mason to be admitted to the Conclave in the area of his Masonic membership and activities, rather than the Conclave in the area in which he may reside.
- C. A Conclave may not act upon a proposal for membership by installation of any Royal Arch Mason residing within any portion of another division in which the Conclave has not been granted concurrent jurisdiction by the Grand Imperial Council, without first obtaining the following:

1. A written waiver of jurisdiction from the Conclave, if any, having exclusive jurisdiction over the territory in which such Royal Arch Mason resides;
 2. A written waiver of jurisdiction from each Conclave, if any, having concurrent jurisdiction over the territory in which such Royal Arch Mason resides; and
 3. The written permission of the Grand Sovereign.
- D. In divisions comprising two or more Conclaves, no Conclave in such division shall take any action on any proposal for regular membership by installation, extend an invitation for regular membership by installation, nor shall such Conclave confer the Orders, nor request that any other Conclave confer the Orders, until under its seal it reports its proposed action to the Grand Recorder, and a report has been received from the Grand Recorder that there is no invitation to such Royal Arch Mason outstanding from any other Conclave in the division, or any objection or unfavorable report previously registered against such Royal Arch Mason. No other Subordinate Conclave shall extend an invitation for membership by installation to or confer the Orders, or request any other Conclave to confer the Orders, upon such Royal Arch Mason, until after the expiration of one year from the date of his selection or rejection by the Conclave submitting his name to the Grand Recorder.
- E. A Knight Companion unattached may be admitted to regular membership in a Subordinate Conclave regardless of his residence. A Knight Companion may be admitted to Dual or Honorary Membership in a Subordinate Conclave regardless of his residence.

§804.110. NUMBER OF MEMBERS.

No Conclave may be formed with less than eleven members. A Subordinate Conclave may, however, be allowed to work with only three members and, in conformity with ancient traditions, may be retained on the roll of the Grand Imperial Council with only a single member. The maximum number of members of a Conclave shall be set by its Bylaws and shall include all members except Emeritus Members and Dual or Honorary Members who hold membership in other Conclaves. The maximum number of members of a Conclave shall not exceed fifty; provided, however, that the membership limits of Conclaves exceeding this number on February 8, 1958 may retain the excess number as their legal limit. [Source: Section 8 of the 1958 General Statutes and Section 10 of the 1958 Standing Regulations of the United Grand Imperial Council.]

§804.115. REGULAR MEMBERSHIP.

- A. Regular membership in a Conclave may be attained only by invitation, which invitation shall be extended only after proper clearance through the Grand Recorder's Office. Only Royal Arch Masons on whom the Constantinian Order of Christian Knighthood may be conferred and unattached Knights Companions of this or any sister Jurisdiction holding a Certificate of Good Standing (or similar document) may be invited as regular members of the Conclave.
- B. Any regular, Dual or Emeritus Member may, upon the form provided for that purpose, suggest the name of a prospective invitee for membership to the Recorder, provided the suggested name is accompanied by his complete Masonic record and a statement that he is a Royal Arch Mason in good standing who subscribes to a belief in the Christian religion as revealed in the New Testament or is an unattached Knight Companion holding a Certificate of Good Standing who is also a Royal Arch Mason in good standing.

- C. Each Conclave shall have full authority to decide by its Bylaws or otherwise what procedure it shall follow before extending an invitation to a prospective invitee, provided, that at least thirty days shall have elapsed from the date of a regular assembly, at which the name was first proposed, to the assembly at which the proposal shall be considered. Once an invitation authorized by the Conclave has been issued, there can be no further ballot or other ordeal. An individual thus invited who is not already a Knight Companion shall present himself for installation within one year after his election. In case he does not so present himself for installation within one year, his election shall be void, but his name may again be presented.
- D. An individual thus invited shall, before his installation or admission by affiliation, file his Acceptance of Invitation in writing, stating that he is a believer in the Christian religion as revealed in the New Testament, giving his Masonic affiliations in the Lodge and Chapter, his residence, date and place of birth, and present occupation, all over his official signature and in the form prescribed by the Grand Imperial Council. Such acceptance shall be preserved in the archives of the Conclave. With his acceptance, he shall also make his offering in the sum prescribed by the Bylaws.
- E. The foregoing provisions notwithstanding, in a Subordinate Conclave of five or fewer members, the Grand Sovereign alone shall pass on the qualifications of any Royal Arch Mason proposed for conferral of the Orders and only he may issue the invitation for membership by installation. If the invitation is accepted, the Grand Sovereign possesses the prerogative to confer the Orders upon such invitee. The Grand Sovereign may delegate the power to confer the Orders to any Intendant General or any Past Sovereign.

§804.120. DUAL MEMBERSHIP.

- A. A Knight Companion in good standing in a Conclave in this or any sister Jurisdiction may be elected to Dual Membership in any other Conclave. Each Conclave shall have full authority to decide by its Bylaws or otherwise what procedure it shall follow to elect a Knight Companion to Dual Membership, provided, that at least thirty days shall have elapsed from the date of a regular assembly, at which the name was first proposed, to the assembly at which the proposal shall be considered.
- B. An individual thus elected shall, before his admission as a Dual Member, file his Acceptance of Invitation in writing, stating that he is a believer in the Christian religion as revealed in the New Testament, giving his Masonic affiliations in the Lodge and Chapter, his residence, date and place of birth, and present occupation, all over his official signature and in the form prescribed by the Grand Imperial Council. Such acceptance shall be preserved in the archives of the Conclave. With his acceptance, he shall also make his offering in the sum prescribed by the Bylaws.

- C. A Dual Member shall have the same rights and privileges as a regular member and shall pay dues and assessments collected by the Conclave. The Conclave shall pay a per capita tax for each Dual Member to the Grand Imperial Council. The Conclave shall pay a primary registration fee to the Grand Imperial Council for each Dual Member enrolled during the year. Dual Members shall not be counted in the allowed limit for regular members.
- D. The status of the Dual Member in a Conclave shall not affect such member's status in any other Conclave. Resignation of membership in the original Conclave automatically converts his Dual Membership into a regular membership, subject to the allowed limit for regular members. Termination of membership for any other reason in the original Conclave automatically forfeits his Dual Membership in any other Conclave.
- E. A Dual Member holding original membership in a Conclave not under the jurisdiction of this Grand Imperial Council shall annually submit to the Recorder of the Conclave evidence of his continued good standing in the other or original Conclave. Failure to submit evidence of good standing, upon due notice, shall be cause for termination of such Dual Membership in the Conclave.

Honorary Membership entitles the holder to no rights and privileges other than a seat in the Conclave. There shall not be more than a total of five such Honorary Members at one time. Honorary Members shall not be counted in the allowed limit for regular members.

§804.130. EMERITUS MEMBERSHIP.

A Conclave may convert to an Emeritus Membership the membership of a regular member of the Conclave when such member is prevented from regular attendance through no fault of his own. The election of a regular member to this classification shall require the consent of the member. Emeritus Members shall have such rights and privileges as the Conclave may specify and shall pay such dues as the Conclave may specify, unless by vote of the Conclave they are remitted. In either case, the per capita tax shall be paid to the Grand Imperial Council the same as for regular members. The number of Emeritus Members of a Conclave shall not at any time exceed a number set forth in the Conclave's Bylaws, which number shall not be more than a total of twenty at any one time. Emeritus Members shall not be counted in the allowed limit for regular members. At the request of an Emeritus Member, the Conclave may convert his membership to that of a regular member, subject to the allowed limit for regular members.

§804.140. REJECTIONS.

- B. Where the name of any person has been presented to the Conclave for affiliation or Dual Membership and such a person has been rejected, his name shall not again be presented in such Conclave until after the expiration of one year from the date of the Regular Assembly at which such person has been rejected. A rejection or withdrawal of the proposal for membership by affiliation shall not affect the rights of the proposed Knight Companion unattached as a former member of the Order. A rejection or withdrawal of the proposal for Dual Membership shall not affect the rights of the proposed Knight Companion in the Order. The proposed Knight Companion's name may be proposed in any other Subordinate Conclave at any time.
- C. In case of the rejection of a proposal for installation, affiliation or Dual Membership, no member or visitor shall disclose the name of any member who objected to the proposal under the penalty of suspension or expulsion, if a member, or, if a visitor, under the penalty of never being permitted to visit the Conclave again or to become a member of it. The Sovereign, in all proper cases, shall cause this section to be read immediately after the rejection of a proposal for installation or affiliation.

resignation of a member pending any inquiry into his conduct, nor until his dues or financial obligations to the Conclave shall have been paid or remitted.

- C. A member may be suspended for non-payment of dues by a two-thirds vote of the members present at a Regular Assembly.
- D. A member may be suspended or expelled for any violation of the laws of Christian Knighthood. Such a suspension or expulsion shall require a two-thirds vote of the members present at a Regular Assembly (not counting the vote of the accused). A member who has been suspended or expelled from a Conclave for any violation of the laws of Christian Knighthood may appeal his suspension or expulsion directly to the Grand Imperial Council as the tribunal of last resort.
- E. A member whose required membership in a prerequisite Masonic body has been terminated by demit or otherwise automatically ceases to be a member in the Conclave. Termination of membership in a prerequisite Masonic body by suspension or expulsion shall not terminate his membership in the event of an appeal of such action until the final decision has been had in the body to which such appeal shall have been taken. However, until the final decision on such appeal, all of his rights and privileges in the Conclave are suspended.

(When the officers of a Subordinate Conclave are ready for Installation the Reigning Sovereign, or a Past Sovereign designated by him, shall appoint a Marshal and direct him to place the Puissant Sovereign-elect directly West of the Altar facing East, with the other elected and appointed officers behind him in line; except that upon reelection of either the Treasurer, Recorder or a Trustee, it will not be necessary to install that Officer.)

((CONSTITUTION) Article I. Section 8. RANK. (a) No Knight Companion shall be qualified to preside over a Conclave of the Order until he shall have been duly invested with the Grade of Sovereign in the Imperial Senate, nor shall the grade be conferred upon anyone who has not previously been consecrated a Viceroy and who has not been duly conferred as a member of the Orders of Knight of the Holy Sepulchre and Knight of Saint John the Evangelist. Where the restriction of membership in the Order of the Holy Sepulchre and St. John the Evangelist work a hardship. The Grand Sovereign, or the Intendant General, acting in his behalf, may grant a waiver in each instance.

(b) No Knight Companion shall be qualified to sit in a Conclave as a Viceroy who shall not have been duly consecrated to the Priesthood of Eusebius in the Imperial College of the Order and who has not been duly conferred a member of the Orders of Knight of the Holy Sepulchre and Knight of Saint John the Evangelist. Where the restriction of membership in the Orders of Knight of the Holy Sepulchre and St. John the Evangelist work a hardship, the Grand Sovereign, or the Intendant General acting in his behalf may grant a waiver in each instance.)

INSTALLING OFFICER: Knight Companion Recorder, read the names of the officers to be installed. Knight Companion Marshal, place the Puissant Sovereign-elect West of the Altar facing East, the other officers in line behind him.

(As the Recorder reads each name of elected or appointed officer, the officer rises and is conducted by the Marshal to his place West of the Altar.)

INSTALLING OFFICER¹: In Freemasonry we are admonished never to engage in any great or laudable undertaking without first invoking the blessings of Deity. All please rise. Knight Companion _____, Acting Prelate, please give the invocation.

ACTING PRELATE²: Gracious God, Great Architect, and Blessed Trinity, made known to us through Jesus Christ whom we acknowledge as King of Kings and Lord of Lords, we beseech Thy blessing upon this, our present undertaking, as we install the officers who now assume leadership in conclave of the Knights of the Red Cross of Constantine.

¹These lines are to be used only in the case of an open installation when the Conclave is not open.

May he who would now command be imbued with the courage and constancy, and compassion of our Illustrious Founder, Constantine. May he be an exemplar of faith, unity, and zeal within this Conclave and in all his doings. May he be loyally supported by all the Knights Companions so that this Conclave and our Order may thrive to the honor and glory of Thy kingdom. All this we ask in the name and for the sake of the all-conquering cross Bearer, Jesus Christ. Amen. (Dr. Harold A. Dunkelberger, Ill. Grand Chaplain, 1987)

INSTALLING OFFICER: (addressing those present) You may be seated.

INSTALLING OFFICER: Puissant Sovereign-Elect, previous to your installation, it is necessary that you signify your assent to these ancient rules and regulations which point out your duties as a Sovereign.

Do you solemnly promise, upon your Honor as a Christian Knight:

1. That you will exert your best endeavors to promote the true happiness of your Brother Knights Companions?
2. That you will not confer the dignity of Knighthood upon anyone who is not of the Christian religion and upon only such as you have reason to believe will cheerfully conform to all our laws and precepts?
3. That you will endeavor to promote the general good of the Order upon all convenient occasions?
4. That to the utmost of your power, you will preserve the solemnity of our Ceremonies, and conduct yourself in open Assembly with the most profound respect and reverence as an example to the Knights Companions under your rule?
5. That you will not acknowledge, nor have intercourse with, nor visit, any Conclave which does not work under a constitutional charter from a recognized Grand Imperial Council of the Order?
6. That you will ever maintain and support the authority of the United Grand Imperial Council of Knights of the Red Cross of Constantine and Appendant Orders for the United States of America, Mexico and the Philippines, and enforce due obedience to its Edicts, Statutes, and Regulations, and strictly observe its ancient traditions and general principles?
7. That you will bind your successor in office to the observance of these rules to which you now assent?

Do you submit to all these ordinances, and promise to observe and practice them faithfully.

(After Puissant Sovereign-Elect has answered, the Installing Officer will approach the Altar and obligate him and the other officers as follows:)

INSTALLING OFFICER: Puissant Sovereign-Elect, you and your associate officers will now be obligated according to the rules and regulations of our Order. All Knights Companions will please stand. Officers, place your right hand over your heart and repeat after me.
